Tonight we will be continuing our study in the book of Daniel. Just as a reminder...if you are curious about a certain topic, person, or story from the Bible please let your group leader know so we can possibly cover it in the future!

Also, if you have heard these stories before please be willing to share your knowledge with others in the group and keep an open mind to possibly learn something!

Does anyone have something they would like to share about what we discussed last week that stuck out to them?

As mentioned above, tonight we will be staying in the book of Daniel but our focus will not be Daniel himself. We will be discussing his friends, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

What do you know about these three men?

While reading this story keep in mind that these are all real people going through real life events. It is easy sometimes to forget that and treat these stories like fantasies because they occurred long ago and the events are so incredible!

Read:

Daniel 3:1-7 (Discuss)

Daniel 3:8-12 (Discuss)

Daniel 3:13-18 (Discuss)

Daniel 3:19-25 (Discuss)

Daniel 3:26-30 (Discuss)

Is there anything about Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that you either learned or were reminded about?

Can you relate to anything in this story?

How can you see God throughout this part of their story?

Have you ever been in a situation where you had to stand, uncompromising, in the face of persecution?

Re-read verses 17 and 18. Have you ever been through a situation where you were faced with not knowing the outcome, but having to just trust and accept whatever God had in store?

How did that affect your life going forward?

Close in prayer.
